

Nathan Rudolph

15330 SW Mallard Dr. #103, Beaverton, OR 97007 • (971) 212-5152 • nathanrudolph35@gmail.com

MEMBERSHIPS

- Oregon State Bar – Admitted September 2012

EDUCATION

University of Denver Sturm College of Law – Denver, CO

Juris Doctor – May 2012

- GPA: 3.39
- Class Rank: Top 28%
- Scholastic Excellence Award – Highest Grade in Evidence (Spring 2011)
- Transportation Law Journal
 - Technical Editor (Fall 2011, Spring 2012)
 - Staff Editor (Fall 2010, Spring 2011)
- University of Denver Criminal Law Review
 - Staff Editor (Fall 2011, Spring 2012)
- Recipient of The Robert and Virginia Appel Endowed Scholarship for Exceptional Academic Merit

Chapman University School of Film and Television – Orange, CA

Bachelor of Arts in Screenwriting – May 2004

- GPA: 3.48

PUBLICATIONS

- Co-author: The Colorado Counsel Conundrum: Plea Bargaining, Misdemeanors, and the Right to Counsel, 89 DENV. U. L. REV. 327 (2012).

PROFESSIONAL LEGAL EXPERIENCE

John E. Gutbezahl, LLC – Lake Oswego, OR

Sept. 2012 – Present

Contract Associate Attorney

- Writing motions and memoranda on various constitutional and statutory criminal defense issues, including: search and seizure, right to counsel, Miranda, vagueness, and overbreadth.
- Wrote appeal of an administrative law judge's order suspending driving privileges.
- Wrote appeal from an order denying post-conviction relief on Assault 1 conviction.
- Appearing in Portland Metro area Circuit Courts on behalf of criminal defendants in felony and misdemeanor cases.

Denver District Attorney's Office – Denver, CO

May 2011 – Nov. 2011

Certified Student Prosecutor

- Prosecuted six misdemeanor jury trials, including: opening statements, direct examinations, and closing arguments.
- Conducted direct examinations and arguments at pretrial motions hearings.
- Negotiated plea dispositions with defense counsel and unrepresented defendants.
- Made bond arguments at arraignments.
- Prepared files for docket by researching criminal histories and DMV records.

Nathan Rudolph

15330 SW Mallard Dr. #103, Beaverton, OR 97007 • (971) 212-5152 • nathanrudolph35@gmail.com

University of Denver Sturm College of Law – Denver, CO Jan. 2011 – April 2012

Research Assistant for Professor Justin Marceau

- Researched a variety of constitutional criminal and civil law issues for amicus briefs and scholarly articles, including: habeas corpus, plea bargaining, and right to counsel.

Colorado State Judicial Branch – Denver, CO

Jan. 2011 – May 2011

Judicial Intern for the Honorable Robert L. McGahey

- Drafted judicial orders in response to motions in criminal cases.
- Conducted extensive legal research in all areas of criminal law.
- Observed all stages of criminal motions hearings, jury trials, and sentencing.
- Participated as bailiff during felony jury trials.

Denver District Attorney's Office – Denver, CO

Aug. 2010 – Dec. 2010

DNA Justice Review Project

Legal Intern

- Reviewed criminal case files for possible DNA exoneration of convicted felons.
- Wrote numerous memoranda analyzing whether post-conviction DNA testing was appropriate and could lead to exoneration.

Rocky Mountain Victim Law Center – Denver, CO

May 2010 – July 2010

Legal Intern

- Conducted extensive legal research of criminal and civil issues regarding victim's rights.
- Wrote memorandum regarding Title IX and state law claims against a public school following a teacher/student rape.

PROFESSIONAL NON-LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Freelance Work – Portland, OR

Nov. 2007 – Aug. 2009

Multi-Media Producer & Video Editor

- Conceptualized and designed multi-media content for web and video.
- Produced and edited corporate marketing videos, documentaries and short films.

Precision Productions + Post – Los Angeles, CA

Dec. 2005 – Aug. 2007

Assistant Video Editor

- Video and sound editing of broadcast television programs, commercials, feature films and corporate marketing videos.

Sony Pictures Television – Los Angeles, CA

May 2005 – Dec. 2005

Television Marketing Intern

- Provided technical, creative and administrative support in the creation of on-air promotions and sales presentations for the sales and marketing departments.