Objective

- I'm interested in contributing my experience and creativity to the task at hand as well as learning as much as possible on the way. I work well with a team and I'm equally capable of working independently.

Skills

- I have years of retail experience including data entry, buying product, bookkeeping and management. I'm a freelance graphic designer working mainly with print and web images for a few clients.

Education

Torrance High School,
Torrance, California

Experience

Powell's Book, Portland,
Oregon

Aug, 2005 to Feb, 2013

Bookseller

- I worked a number of positions at Powell's ranging from data entry to being a 'generalist' which included a bit of everything. Eventually I left the store to work behind the scenes for the website. There, I bought and sold books for the online market and worked with rare books, researching and writing about them for Powells.com and other sites.

Colorcubic, Portland, Oregon

Nov, 2005 to Sept, 2009

Copywriter/Graphic designer/General creative

- As an intern, I learned the ins and outs of the graphic design industry from the ground up. I wrote for the site, helped organize events and eventually created designs and collateral for clients.

Movie Madness, Portland,
Oregon

Sept, 2002 to Agh 2005

Clerk

- General retail duties including cashiering, cleaning/maintaining the costumes and props and of course using my vast film knowledge to help customers.

Everyday Music, Portland,
Oregon

Jan, 2000 to Sept, 2002

Keyholder

- At Everyday, I was a keyholder responsible for opening and closing the store, bookkeeping and banking. I was also a buyer of used records and new product for the store.

Extracurricular

- I'm a cast member on the podcast Movies About Girls, a long running film review and comedy show, as well as producing electronic music for a variety of purposes.
