

Andrew Ginis

4030 SE Ivon Street #6 | Portland, OR 97202
Phone: (503) 893-9257 | E-Mail: aginis@lclark.edu

Member, Oregon State Bar

Education

J.D. Lewis & Clark Law

[2007 – 2010]

Law Review, Member Animal Law Review; Jewish Legal Society, President; BAR/BRI Bar Review, Head Representative; Research Assistant, Professor Elaine Sutherland; Student Bar Association, Member and Representative to the Faculty Curriculum Committee; Oregon Intellectual Property Newsletter, Student Notes Contributor; Boley Law Library, Circulation Assistant

B.A. University of Michigan, Political Science and Psychology with Honors

[2001 – 2005]

Experience

Professor Lydia Loren, Graduate Research Fellow

[Dec. 2010 – Present]

- Researched anti-abuse provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act for an upcoming publication.
- Drafted memoranda on the standard of review in trademark dilution and infringement cases for revising Intellectual Property Law: Cases & Materials (Ver. 2.1, Semaphore Press).

Andrew Ginis, Attorney at Law

[Oct. 2010 – Present]

- Represented clients in examination and collections controversies before the IRS.

TriQuint Semiconductor, Legal Intern

[Jan. 2010 – May 2010]

- Managed an internal patent and trademark database data verification project, created an asset portfolio summary, met alone with outside counsel to evaluate the efficiency of current asset management procedures, and presented a summary of my findings to general counsel.
- Reviewed, drafted, and filed responses to USPTO actions on an ongoing basis.
- Reviewed intellectual property licensing agreements related to a complex acquisition and partial divestment transaction, drafted a memo assessing liability under the agreements.

Lewis & Clark Legal Clinic, Legal Intern

[Aug. 2009 – Dec. 2009]

- Researched and drafted client memoranda, drafted pleadings, and conducted client conferences related to Chapter 7 bankruptcies, eviction proceedings, domestic violence cases, and divorce proceedings.
- Appeared before the Multnomah County Circuit Court and U.S. Bankruptcy Court.
- Volunteer for the Oregon State Bar's pro bono bankruptcy clinic.

Lewis & Clark Small Business Legal Clinic, Legal Intern

[May 2009 – Jun. 2009]

- Researched and drafted client memoranda, conducted client conferences, and provided transactional legal advice to new and emerging businesses, primarily those owned by underrepresented minorities.
- Advised an emerging sustainable delivery business on regulatory compliance, contracts, and intellectual property protection, drafted a delivery contract, filed Oregon trademark applications.
- Advised a minority-owned screen printing business on entity selection and intellectual property protection, drafted and filed LLC formation documents.

Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, Legal Intern

[May 2008 – Aug. 2008]

- Researched appellate brief issues and prepared case files for trial in Philadelphia Municipal Court.

Interests

Camping, Cooking, Cycling, Fishing, Gardening, Hiking, and Skiing.

Community Involvement

Legal Aid Services of Oregon: Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Pro Bono Attorney; Oregon New Lawyers

Division: Law Related Education Committee, Member; Portland Parks & Recreation, Community Gardener.