Dear Hiring manager,

My name is Amr, I am writing to introduce myself to you as a Graphic Designer. Currently I am working full time as a Creative Designer at the Oregonian Newspaper (Advance Publications). I have over 7 years of experience developing designs for a number of products, and clearly understand business needs along with visual arts. I have successfully delivered commercial designs in the fields of print advertisement, posters, post cards, mailer's, logos, corporate identity packages, newsletters, brochures, stationary, and catalogs. Web site design and banner advertisement creation.

I am a very determined, dedicated and advanced creative designer. I can provide a full range of creative work including concept development, as well as digital compositing, retouching, visual effects, digital graphics, branding and editorial.

I have extensive knowledge and experience with Macintosh Computers and PC platforms. In addition exceptional proficiency with Adobe Creative Suite - Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Acrobat, InDesign- and QuarkXPress. My goal is to be a part of a team that prioritizes professionalism and the creative spirit.

Please email me to request an interview and discuss in more detailed my experience and skills that qualify me for the position. My resume and work samples can be seen at:
