

Joshua M. Stadler

4811 Clark Lane Apartment 104

Columbia, Missouri 65202

Cell: 573-529-3400

jmsd4f@mail.missouri.edu

Education

University of Missouri

Columbia, Missouri

Bachelor of Arts in English

Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy

- Graduated May 2010 with Honors in English
- Double Majored
- Cumulative GPA: 3.3

Competencies

Communication Skills

- Acquired advanced persuasive/argumentative writing skills through the completion of hundreds of writing assignments and other course work
- Developed strong verbal communication skills during class discussions and working in small groups with peers
- Edited scholarly work of peers and learned techniques for providing constructive critique

Critical Thinking/Analytical Skills

- Analyzed and critiqued wide-ranging and numerous texts according to various criteria and perspectives
- Considered and developed arguments pertaining to prominent philosophical issues

Creative Skills

- Composed and reviewed a number of fiction short stories
- Integrated different viewpoints from a variety of sources in developing and supporting theses for research papers

Research Skills

- Conducted extensive research using library and on-line academic databases

Work History

Country Club of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri May 2010 through present

Irrigation Technician

- Troubleshoot, maintained, and repaired irrigation system
- Mastered the operation of many pieces of equipment including different mowers

Flat Branch Pub & Brewing, Columbia, Missouri February 2010 through July 2010

Pizza/Prep Cook

- Prepared food to order in a high volume and fast paced environment
- Followed recipes with precision and attention to detail

Designer Landscape, Columbia, Missouri October 2004 through August 2009

Irrigation Installer/Landscaper/Crew Leader

- Installed commercial and residential irrigation systems
- Planted trees, shrubs, flowers; built retaining walls and water features