

Walter F. Fonseca

5035 NE 25th Ave. • Portland, OR 97211 • fonseca@lclark.edu • Ph: 757.846.7063

Education

Lewis & Clark Law School, Portland, OR
Juris Doctor, May 2013

Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, VA
Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy & Religious Studies, May 2006

Work ExperienceLewis & Clark Law School

Assistant Summer Camp Instructor, July 2013.

- Assisted in instructing middle school students preparing for and conducting a mock trial.

Community Development Law Center

Legal Intern, Spring 2012

- Conducted research and drafted legal memoranda on various state, local, and federal laws pertaining to non-profit corporation organization and operations, including, but not limited to, taxation, articles of incorporation, and construction projects.

Lewis & Clark Legal Clinic

Certified Legal Intern, Summer & Fall 2011

- Conducted all aspects of case preparation, including initial interviews, drafting memos, client correspondence, and negotiations with adverse parties.
- Appeared in Court as a Certified Law Student conducting FED action defenses, Ex Parte Motions, various family law actions, and 341(a) Bankruptcy hearings.

Community Service

Metropolitan Public Defenders:

Expungement Clinic Volunteer, January 2013 – Present.

Sponsors Organized to Assist Refugees:

Volunteer Naturalization Class Instructor, January 2013 – May 2013.

Lewis & Clark Law School American Civil Liberties Union:

Co-Chair, 2010-2011.

Legal Aid Services of Oregon Night Clinic:

Volunteer, 2011- 2012.